Absolutely. At PureJewels, all our emerald earrings showcase natural Zambian emeralds, responsibly sourced and certified, including many from the esteemed Gemfields mine. These genuine stones are set in the finest materials—most notably our 22ct Sunrise Gold, an exclusive alloy retaining gold’s purity with enhanced durability and a radiant golden-rose glow.

For a graceful and contemporary silhouette, the Horizon Emerald Hoops are an exquisite choice. Crafted in 22ct Sunrise Gold, these hoops feature vibrant emeralds accented by a twist wire motif, merging enduring luxury with modern styling.

The term “emerald earrings UK” typically refers to pieces available from UK-based jewellers. As a proud London atelier, PureJewels offers both in-store and international access to heirloom-quality emerald jewellery, crafted with precision, heritage, and purpose.
