How do I get to Green Street London, and what is the nearest station?

Green Street, London · https://www.purejewels.com/faqs/green-street-london/how-do-i-get-to-green-street-london-and-what-is-the-nearest-station/

Green Street, located in East London's Upton Park, is easily accessible by both public transport and car. It's one of the capital's most vibrant shopping destinations, renowned for its South Asian fashion, bridalwear, and fine gold jewellery.

By Tube or Train

The nearest station to Green Street is Upton Park Underground Station, served by both the District and Hammersmith & City lines. The station is just a 2-minute walk from the main shopping stretch of Green Street. Trains run frequently, and the journey from central London (e.g., Tower Hill) takes around 20–25 minutes.

You can also reach Green Street from Stratford Station via local bus or a short taxi ride if you're connecting from the Jubilee or Elizabeth lines.

By Car

Driving to Green Street is convenient, especially if you're shopping for wedding outfits or jewellery and may have larger items to carry. However, it's important to plan, as the area can be busy during weekends and festive seasons.

Recommended car parks near Green Street:

- East Shopping Centre Car Park (232–236 Green Street) – Conveniently located with ample space, especially if you're visiting multiple shops.
- Queens Market Car Park – Situated off Green Street with reasonable hourly rates.
- Park & Ride facilities near Stratford can also be a good option during busy periods, with easy onward transport links.

Most car parks are within walking distance of major stores like PureJewels, making it easy to collect purchases securely.

Whether you’re visiting for a day of wedding shopping or simply exploring, Green Street is well-connected and welcoming to both local and international visitors. Plan your visit to enjoy a seamless experience of culture, style, and craftsmanship.