How to get from Newbury Park to PureJewels on Green Street, Upton Park

About PureJewels

PureJewels is a London luxury atelier known for bespoke design, meticulous craftsmanship and a refined aesthetic in 22ct Sunrise Gold, diamonds and platinum. From engagement rings and made-to-order bridal pieces to one-of-a-kind heirlooms, our workshop pairs advanced techniques with artisanal finishing for exceptional comfort, proportion and light performance. Every piece is hallmarked in the UK for purity certification, and our specialist team offers private consultations to shape your idea into a perfectly fitted jewel.

Fastest route (Tube)

From Newbury Park (Central line), travel westbound to Mile End. Make a simple cross-platform change to the District or Hammersmith & City line eastbound and continue to Upton Park. Exit towards Green Street and walk straight along Green Street to the showroom. Trains are frequent and this interchange at Mile End is usually the quickest.

Easiest route (fewest changes)

Use the same Central line → Mile End interchange to the District/H&C lines, then stay on to Upton Park. The cross-platform change keeps walking to a minimum and suits visitors carrying gifts or arriving for a bespoke consultation.

Cheapest route (bus with Hopper fare)

Take a local bus from Newbury Park to Ilford, then change for services towards Green Street/Upton Park. Using the Hopper fare keeps costs low when changing within the TfL time window. Allow extra time during busy periods and weekends.

By car

Set your sat nav to Green Street, Upton Park, London E7. Approach via the A12, then join the A118 or A124 for the final stretch. Allow time for weekend traffic or match days. Limited pay and display operates on and around Green Street, with additional public car parks in the wider area.

Taxi or ride-hail

Taxis and ride-hailing from Newbury Park provide a direct door-to-door journey, ideal if you are collecting a bespoke commission or prefer a simpler arrival.

If you would like live route guidance on the day, call us and we will be happy to help. We look forward to welcoming you to PureJewels on Green Street.
